

Entrepreneur, Chef, Hotelier-- Now Author

Art often imitates life. As a young man, Hansueli (Hans) Schlunegger was determined to make his mark in the world and he dreamed of becoming a master chef. Eager to experience adventure and romance, he fine-tuned his culinary talents and traveled to Oslo, Stockholm, Geneva, and St. Moritz-- until finally, he arrived in America.

Like a precise movement in a Swiss timepiece, Han's life story moved along like clockwork, which brings us to his new fiction novel-- All' Acqua. The romantic, action-filled novel is set in the 1950s, in the tiny hamlet of All' Acqua near the Swiss Alps. The characters: A young corporal and a beautiful Italian model struggle with love, ambition and betrayal. Enter the renegades and the hunt begins as the characters travel across the rugged Alps into Italy... but you'll have to read the book to figure out what happens next.

Hans said, "There are elements of truth in the story."

And he mischievously adds, "Some of the love stories are true, but the names have been changed to protect the innocent."

All' Acqua by Hansueli Schlunegger is available for purchase at: Inn of the Hills Resort & Conference Center, El Sol Art, Wolfmueller's Books, and Hastings. Online: Amazon.com (Han's website will be online soon - www.hansbooks.com).
